U. S. Department of Agriculture

To Everyone Interested in Irises:

For the past eight weeks, with my entire force of men I have been busy digging and shipping Irises, and endeavoring to get enough acreage planted from which to fill Iris orders during the next two years. As my own planting nears its completion, I find that in some very desirable varieties I will have a surplus, which I am sure many other Iris growers and enthusiasts will be very glad to procure.

I am having all these surplus varieties invoiced, and I intend to send out at least once each week and possibly twice each week a Bargain Iris List showing these varieties in quantities and in collections at very low prices. The first of these lists is given in this circular, which is being sent out to everyone on my mailing list. The future weekly and semi-weekly Bargain Iris Lists, however, will be mailed only to those persons who wish to receive them, and if you want these Bargain Iris Lists, you should sign and return the inclosed card.

It is quite probable that if you wish to procure one of the Dominion Collections included in this week's offer, it will be necessary for you to wire, as the quantity of this particular collection is very limited. On receipt of your telegram I will hold the Collection for you until your remittance comes, because I am doing a strictly cash business, and I do not care to incur the expense of a book-keeper.
